From time to time we may also receive contingent profits indicated from some of our insurers, this profit is based on growth, retention, claims, volume and more and is not guaranteed, please visit the insurers website for more information on this.

Should there be any changes to our commissions schedule or any material change that would affect our compensation, we will make sure to notify you of the changes.

If you require further information, please contact your broker at our office and we would be happy to explain further.
